53.4 MILLION AMERICANS take part in recreational fishing, hunting and target shooting each year.

Collectively, those sportsmen and women help drive the U.S. economy, spending $93.7 BILLION on gear, motorboat fuel, licenses, travel, clothing and more in 2016 alone.

America’s 13.3 million hunters and 32 million target shooters add $55.4 BILLION to the GDP. These activities provide for 854,000 jobs.

Meanwhile, America’s 45.8 million anglers contribute $63.5 BILLION to the nation’s GDP. These expenditures support 802,000 jobs.

CONSUMER SPENDING BY HUNTERS, ANGLERS AND TARGET SHOOTERS SUPPORTS OVER 1.6 MILLION JOBS TO THE TUNE OF $71.8 BILLION IN SALARIES. THESE ACTIVITIES CONTRIBUTED $119 BILLION TO U.S. GDP IN 2016.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT: WWW.CONGRESSIONALSPORTSMEN.ORG/REPORTS